Climate

Corsica enjoys a Mediterranean climate full of nuances due to its altitude, latitude, maritime environment and winds. Dazzling bright, radiantly sunny summers are scorching hot (40°C) and dry, while winters are particularly mild near the shores (18°C).

Springtime is warm and fragrantly flowered, and autumn is most pleasant at altitudes below 600 m. Whatever the season, Corsica means sunshine. Ajaccio in particular, holds the record for all France with nearly 2900 hours of sunshine per year.

Winter (December to March): 13 to 18° c - 56 to 65° f... fresh evenings (average water temperature: 15° c - 57° f).

Spring and autumn (April, May, October and November): 18 to 25° c - 65 to 77° f... light clothing
(average water temperature: 15 to 20° c - 59 to 68° f).

Summer (June to September): 25 to 35° c - 77 to 95° f...very light clothing (average water temperature: 21 to 25° c - 70 to 77° f).
